REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

1. The Roma Firm, formerly known as Romsa, is producing containers for tar and fuel oil in the Mareschi Factory at Rijeka. A certain Biagini is at the head of the project which employs one hundred workers and produces five hundred two-quintal containers per day. The machinists for the project were provided by the Jesenice Steel Works. The factory works one shift per day from 6 a.m. to 2 p.m.
2. A subsidiary of the factory, which is charged with filling the containers produced in the main shop, works two six-hour shifts, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Most of the tar is sent to Croatia.
